Chris Womack, Owner

tents, tables, chairs, staging, cooling, heating, fans, generators, audio, video, flooring, lighting, ATV/golf carts, portable restrooms, and VIP rooms.

Chris grew up in Euless, Texas. His dad worked in the equipment rental industry which helped influence him to buy his event rental company. He moved to the Houston area in 1994, but soon after was injured on the job at a railroad company. He purchased his very first home in Friendswood after conducting extensive research on what were the best towns to live in that had the best core values, best school district, and resale values. In 2016, he married his best friend, Danielle, who also works for the company.

Chris is a member of the Friendswood Chamber of Commerce and was awarded "Business of the Month" in April of this year. He also is involved with Texas EquiSearch, Friendswood Police Department, Friendswood Independent School District, Friendswood Animal Shelter, and City events including the annual July 4 Independence celebration. Chris sums it up by saying "I wanted for me and my family to be in the city that I live and love, to support other local businesses, and have the opportunity to give back to the community."

Chris Womack, a resident since 2002, is the owner of InTents Party Supply, LLC located at 109 Laurel.

Chris purchased InTents in 2006 which was then located in Pearland. Just sixty days after he bought the business, Chris decided to relocate his business to its current location in Friendswood occupying 8,400 square feet of space with twenty employees. InTents provides complete installation of tents and accessories for weddings, sporting events, festivals, fairs, barbecue cook offs, and corporate events. His services include rental of structure

Chris, with a can-do attitude and positive outlook, has grown his successful business exponentially in the last fifteen years, currently providing services to customers all over the state of Texas, Oklahoma, Louisiana, New Mexico and other surrounding states.
